

CASE Partner Selection and Request for Proposal (RFP) Process

Last updated March 19, 2026

CASE's Partner Selection and RFP Process is done in a fair, open, and transparent manner. If your bid is unsuccessful, you can request a bid debriefing. We'll explain our evaluation process and how your bid was evaluated based on our criteria. You'll also get insight into how to improve your future submissions.

Please note: We can only offer a bid debrief within 30 calendar days of the contract award notification. To make a request, please submit a Request for Bid Debriefing at contact@supportedemployment.ca.

Conflict of Interest Policy:

CASE is committed to maintaining integrity and impartiality throughout the selection process. All evaluators and decision-makers are required to disclose any real, potential, or perceived conflicts of interest prior to participating in the evaluation. If a conflict is identified, appropriate measures will be taken to mitigate or eliminate the risk, ensuring that all bids are assessed fairly and without bias.
